Pick up from your hotel and transfer to Mari-Mari Cultural village. As you walk through the village you will find demonstration huts featuring the varied lifestyles of the tribal people of Sabah. Daily activities come to life such as blowpipe making, starting a fire, tattoo-making and more. By the end of your journey through this living museum you will have been given a fascinating insight and feel of the unique cultural history of Sabah.

KOTA KINABALU SEAFOOD DINNER (D)

At dusk, Kota Kinabalu's (KK) waterfront is transformed into a bustling night market; dominated by scores of open air food stalls selling everything from BBQ fish to fried rice and noodles to sweet doughnuts and banana fritters. All are cooked on the spot resulting in a smoky, fragrant atmosphere. Nearby the market traders continue to sell their fresh fruit and vegetables well into the night. This is when the best bargains are to be had and unusual and exotic fruits grown on the rich soils of Mt. Kinabalu are there to be tried and tasted. The evening culminates at a nearby seafood restaurant. KK boasts some of the finest seafood in Malaysia and a seafood dinner is a must for any visitor.
